Hello friends,

I have arrived safely in Brussels, Belgium, and completed my first week of student teaching at the International School of Brussels. My brother and I traveled around Europe before coming to Brussels, and though I could write pages upon pages about each place we visited, I know you are busy. Instead of writing a novel, I will give you a snapshot version of the trip through a series of “postcards” from each place.

If you would like further details, just email me and let me know! I would love to tell you more.

Meanwhile, I would appreciate if you could keep me in your prayers, especially for the following:

- Thank God that He gave us safety as we traveled across Europe
- Pray that I would find solid Christian fellowship here in Brussels
- Pray that God would open up a door for me to share His Word with the teachers with whom I work
